The Acting Leader of the Opposition, Mr. Des Corcoran, said today that Parliament should be called together immediately so that members could stand up and be counted on the Chowilla-Dartmouth issue.

Mr. Corcoran said that in view of Mr. Stott's statements last night and this morning, the issue should be cleared. He said that he had heard a transcript of last night's meeting at Loxton which Mr. Stott addressed. He said that Mr. Stott asked the audience: "do you want me to vote against Dartmouth even if Mr. Hall declares it a vote of no confidence." There were roars of "Yes" from the audience. Mr. Stott then said: "Allright, I will".

Mr. Corcoran went on to say that Mr. Hall and all members of his Government had repudiated their election promise to build Chowilla, that Mr. Stott was continually making contradictory statements, that the Hall Government was prepared to spend public money on Dartmouth, and that the situation was so confused that the only sensible thing to do was to recall Parliament immediately.
